

Britt Wood is the Director of Internal Audit for the State of Tennessee Treasury Department. As part of her duties, she performs audits, risk assessments, investigations and special projects for programs administered by the Treasury Department that include Baccalaureate Education System Trust (BEST), Chairs of Excellence Program, Claims Administration, Deferred Compensation Program, Flexible Benefits Plan, Investments, Risk Management, Small and Minority Owned Business Assistance Program, Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System (TCRS), and Unclaimed Property Program. The Division of Internal Audit also serves as the staff for five audit committees, including TCRS, Chairs of Excellence, BEST, Tennessee Local Development Authority, and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Britt is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University who has earned the following professional designations: Certified Public Accountant, Certified Fraud Examiner, Certified Government Financial Manager and Certified Information Systems Auditor..

Britt has been a member of AGA since 1996 and served on several committees. During 2007, she received her CGFM and she was the recipient of the 2007- 08 AGA Member of the Year award. She is currently the President of the Middle Tennessee Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.