

John Bissell is the Director of the State of Tennessee, Department of General Services, Purchasing Division. His office is responsible for the procurement of all goods and non professional services for the State, as well as contracting for professional services for the Department of General Services. John began his career with the Purchasing Division in March 1987. Prior to being appointed as director in February of 2007, John served for several years as Purchasing Administrator where he was instrumental in the design and development of the Tennessee Online Purchasing System (TOPS). John attended the Tennessee Government Management Institute in 2006 and serves on several committees including the Green Procurement Task Force for the National Association of State Procurement Officials. John grew up in Oak Ridge and holds a BS degree in Communications from the University of Tennessee Knoxville where he graduated in 1983. He has 23 years of experience in governmental procurement.