Nashville chapter offers valuable training for free

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Nashville Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants is offering free training on governmental accounting, financial reporting and budgeting as needed for the Certified Government Financial Management (CGFM) Examination 2. The training session is scheduled for March 9, 2009 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the James K. Polk Building, 16th Floor Training Room, 505 Deaderick Street.

The session is to provide essential training for those individuals who plan to sit for the CGFM exams with the goal of becoming certified. Topics will include concepts of financial reporting and standards, budgeting, cost accounting, performance reporting, fund accounting and reporting, government-wide financial reporting, revenue/expense/other operating statement transactions, federal budgeting and accounting, federal financial statements, federal financial accounting standards and more. Eight hours of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits will be awarded.

Depending on the amount of interest, the location may need to be moved; however, any change of venue will be conveyed in a timely manner to those who register.

Interested individuals should call Gerry Boaz, CPA, CGFM at (615) 747-5262, Ron Queen, CPA, CGFM, MA at (615) 401-7862, Nichole Curtiss, MBA, CGFM at (615) 401-7947 or visit the AGA website at <http://www.nashvilleaga.org/CGFM.htm> for more information.
