

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

January 27, 2011

Contact: Karen B. Hale, MAOM, CGFM
Association of Government Accountants
(615) 406-6596
Karen.Hale@nashvilleaga.org

Nashville Chapter announces a one-day ARRA session

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The Nashville Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA) is proud to announce a one-day outreach session for individuals and entities with oversight responsibilities over the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009. The event is hosted by the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board.

The session will feature speakers such as Recovery Board Executive Director H. Glen Walker, Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury Justin P. Wilson, Office of Management and Budget Controller Danny Werfel and many other high-level speakers from federal, state and local government. Afternoon breakout sessions will focus on specific programs that received ARRA funding, including education, transportation and energy.

The discussion will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Wednesday, February 23, 2011 at the Nashville Convention Center, located at 601 Commerce Street, Nashville, TN 37203.

Registration is free and open to federal, state or local government employees involved with ARRA implementation, oversight, reporting or compliance. Attendees can earn 5.5 free CPE hours. Attendance will be limited to the first 250 registrants. Lunch will be provided.

The Nashville Area Chapter of AGA is a professional association that represents nearly 400 members, of 15,000+ members nationally, who are dedicated to improving financial management in federal, state and local governments in Tennessee.

To register, fax the registration form to AGA at 703-562-0361. Interested individuals may contact Rica Muhammad at 800.AGA.7211 Ext 303 or rmuhammad@agacgfm.org for more information.

For more information on the Nashville Chapter AGA, log onto www.nashvilleaga.org/ or www.agacgfm.org for the national web site.

###